

Wales Regional Waste Plans 1st Review

Planning for Commercial and Industrial Waste Management Facilities

Business and Industry Consultation Event: 26 November 2007

Millenium Stadium, Cardiff

PROGRAMME

The Event will be facilitated by Professor Adam Read, of Hyder Consulting.

10:30 Registration and Coffee

11:00 Welcome by Chair - Cllr Pam Palmer, Cabinet Councillor for Environment, Carmarthenshire County Council and Chair of the South West Wales Regional Waste Group

11:10 WAG Perspective – Targets and Solutions- Dr Andy Rees, Head of Waste Strategy, Welsh Assembly Government

11:30 Regional Waste Plan 1st Review – The Technology Strategy & Spatial Strategy- Ceri Morris, Regional Waste Co-ordinator, Neath Port Talbot County Borough Council (on behalf of South East, South West and North Wales)

11.50 The Public Consultation – Prof Adam Read, Head of Waste Management, Hyder Consulting

12:10 Waste Management Industry Perspective – Partnership Working & Building Facilities – Keith Riley, Managing Director, Veolia

12:30 Lunch

13.15 Workshop Instructions for facilitated workshops as outlined below:

13:25 Workshop A: The Need for Facilities: What are the aims of the regional waste plans? Why does Wales need facilities? How many? What are the partnership opportunities?

Workshop B: The Technology Options: What types of technology are being considered? What are the preferred technology combinations?

Workshop C: The Appraisal Process: How were the preferred options derived?

Workshop D: Planning: Areas of search for new facilities – where should they go?

14.25 Workshop Discussion

14:40 What happens next?

15.10 Close